Re: Vietnam Veterans of America, et al. v. Central Intelligence Agency, et al., Case No.
CV 09-0037-CW (N.D. Cal.)

Dear Ms. Wolverton:

Plaintiffs are prepared to produce documents responsive to Defendants' First Set of Requests for Production, as described in Plaintiffs' June 10, 2010 responses and objections.

Certain of the documents to be produced contain confidential information that should not be used or disclosed outside of this litigation. As you are aware, because the parties have been unable to agree to terms of a protective order to govern confidential information produced in this litigation, Plaintiffs have moved the Court for entry of an appropriate protective order to permit both sides to produce confidential information for use in this case. Please let us know whether Defendants are willing, while Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order is pending, to treat these documents as subject to a confidentiality designation, prohibiting use or disclosure outside of the litigation, and to agree that these documents will be designated confidential under the terms of any future protective order. Thank you.

Sincerely,

/s/

Daniel J. Vecchio
